ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Investigations into the nature of multifaceted intelligence have been considered of prime importance at Jnana Prabodhini. The Founder Director Late Dr. V.V. Pendse, then the next Director Dr. V.S. Tamhankar and the present Director Dr. G.S. Bapat, all of them have motivated us from time to time for this unique and Herculean task and provided us all possible support. The research reports were presented to a limited scientific community. But Dr. G.S. Bapat thought that the project would not be complete unless the concept and the results were presented to the common public. And he gave the idea of a small Marathi booklet.

The printing section of Jnana Prabodhini and many other volunteers came forward for printing. And thus the first edition was out. Mr. Mahendra Sethiya, the editor of 'Chhatra Prabodhan', published the second edition in 1996, which was later reprinted in 1998. The third edition of the Marathi version is still in the process.

Many readers repeatedly mentioned the need of an English translation, and Mr. Mahendra Sethiya took the initiative to publish the English version. Our devoted past students Mrs. Girija Joshi-Desai and Mr. Sameer Ballal came forward for the task of translation.

Though it was a translation of the previous Marathi version, it was not easy to maintain the scientific framework of the matter and yet bring each sentence close to the experience of a common person. But the co-writers Mrs. Girija Joshi-Desai and Mr. Sameer Ballal - were successful in achieving the feat of finalizing the translation in English after many meetings and discussions. Mrs. Meenakshi Rajan-Rao, another past student critically read the final English version. Our English teachers' from Jnana Prabodhini Prashala, Mrs. Ragini Naik and Mrs. Laxmi Roshan took the responsibility of reediting the matter for appropriate presentation inspite of their hectic schedule in the school. Mrs. Manjiri Mhaskar participated in monitoring the whole process from script to print.

I acknowledge gratefully all these contributions.
